

14th Annual Power of Prevention Conference

At the Utah Cultural Celebration Center
1355 West 3100 South, West Valley City, Utah

FREE INTERNET SAFETY 101[®] TRAINING

(regularly a $300 value)

UCCP in partnership with Enough Is Enough[®] (EIE) invites leaders and members of the Community to join us for EIE's Internet Safety 101[®] Ambassador: Advanced Training on Thursday, January 26 OR Internet Safety 101[®] Facilitator: Basic Training on Friday, January 27.

Internet Safety 101[®] Ambassador: Advanced Training - January 26, 2012 (Free Registration) 9:00am-4:00pm (6 hours, 1 hour for lunch)

CEO and President Donna Rice Hughes will guide adult participants through the Internet dangers confronting children including pornography, sexual predators, and cyberbullies, as well as keeping kids safe on the web, social networking sites, gaming sites, and mobile devices using EIE's Internet Safety 101[®] multi-media curriculum. Developed in partnership with the U.S. Department of Justice, the curriculum educates, equips and empowers parents, educators, law enforcement, church leaders and other caring adults on how to prevent Internet-initiated crimes against children and how to keep them safe on all Internet-enabled devices. Ambassador Advanced Training participants will receive train-the-trainer education in order to provide community education on Internet safety and will be certified to teach Basic Facilitator Trainings and hold Internet Safety 101[®] workshops. Participants will also have the opportunity for extensive discussion and Q&A. The Internet Safety 101[®] Program will give you the information, skills, and confidence to effectively protect children on all Internet-enabled devices.

Workshop participants will receive a complimentary copy of the award-winning 101[®] curriculum 4-part DVD Teaching series, Workbook/Resource Guide and Rules 'N Tools[®] booklet (a value of $54.95). This curriculum can be used by individuals and organizations with no Internet safety expertise and no previous experience training community members. It can be used as a plug and play or tailored for specific audiences, with or without a facilitator, small and large audiences. By attending this training, participants will become certified Internet Safety 101 Ambassadors, and have the ability to purchase Internet Safety 101[®] Program resources at wholesale and resell them at retail value for their trainings as well as the ability to charge participants to attend their Internet Safety 101[®] workshops which creates a new business opportunity for participants.

The Internet Safety 101[®] Program DVD teaching series is hosted by Internet safety expert Donna Rice Hughes; is filmed in front of a live studio audience and duplicates the power of in-person training seminars and enables individuals or groups of any size to host Internet safety events.

Internet Safety 101[®] Facilitator: Basic Training - January 27, 2012 (Free Registration for this class only) 1:30-4:25pm (3 hours)

CEO and President Donna Rice Hughes will guide adult participants through the Internet dangers confronting children including pornography, sexual predators, and cyberbullies, as well as keeping kids safe on the web, social networking sites, gaming sites, and mobile devices using EIE's Internet Safety 101[®] multi-media curriculum. Developed in partnership with the U.S. Department of Justice, the curriculum educates, equips and empowers parents, educators, law enforcement, church leaders and other caring adults on how to prevent Internet-initiated crimes against children and how to keep them safe on all Internet-enabled devices.

Workshop participants will receive a complimentary copy of the Internet Safety 101[®] curriculum which includes 4 part DVD Teaching series, Workbook/Resource Guide and Rules 'N Tools[®] Book (a value of $54.95). This curriculum can be used by individuals and organizations with no Internet safety expertise and no previous experience training community members. It can be used as a plug and play or tailored, with or without a facilitator, small and large audiences.

The Internet Safety 101[®] Program DVD teaching series is hosted by Internet safety expert Donna Rice Hughes; is filmed in front of a live studio audience and duplicates the power of in-person training seminars and enables individuals or groups of any size to host Internet safety events. In this Facilitator Basic Training, participants will learn how to increase community education on Internet safety. Participants will also have the opportunity for discussion and Q&A. The Internet Safety 101[®] Program will give you the information, skills, and confidence to effectively protect children on all Internet-enabled devices.

Thursday Friday

Name _____ Title: _____

Agency _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Send registration to: Email registration form to alclayburgh@yahoo.com, or fax to number below.

Utah Council for Crime Prevention (UCCP)

Attn: Alison

462 Bearcat Drive, Salt Lake City, UT 84115

Phone 801-486-8691

Toll Free 800-280-8824

Fax: 801-486-8815